

Journal of Humanities in Rehabilitation: Author Instructions For Revisions

Thank you for your submission to The Journal of Humanities in Rehabilitation. Per the peer review process of our journal, your submission has been recommended to be accepted with revisions. Please use the following directions to submit another draft of your submission.

Author Revision:

Please review the Peer Review Form that was returned with your original submission. As you revise your submission, please indicate on the Peer Review form how you addressed the reviewer's question, suggestion or concern. For instance, after a comment provided by the reviewer, please add the label "Author's response" and indicate what changes were made. Example:

From reviewer: Line 5, pg. 4, please clarify the phrase "_rehabilitation dream_____".

Author's response: Addressed with additional words and explanation in lines 6-8 on page 4.

Please return 2 versions of your revised submission:

- one that highlights or bolds the changes you made from the original submission.
- a clean version (no highlights or bolded words) of the changes you made from the original submission.

Completion Checklist

- 1.) ___ Author Response to line edits;
- 2.) ___ Clean Revision Document;
- 3.) ___ Highlighted Revision Document;

Return the Peer Review form with Author responses, clean revision and revision with highlighted or bolded changes to the managing editor at one time. If you have any questions, please contact the managing editor: Aimee Reiss at aimee.reiss@emory.edu
